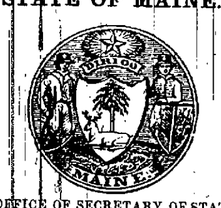
STATE OF MAINE.



OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE, Augusta, March 1, 1866.

CIRCULAR.

THE Act of the 23d of February last, providing pensions for certain classes of disabled soldiers and the widows and minor children of those deceased) of the War of 1861, will necessarily impose upon the State Department duties somewhat analagous to those of the Pension Bureau at Washington, though of a comparatively limited character. Considerable time will therefore be required by the Council, in whom is vested the supervision of this new department of business, in determining the mode of procedure and preparing the requisite blanks therefor.

Early in the ensuing May session of that Honorable body, forms and regulations, with a copy of the law, will be promulgated.

Applicants under this statute, who are, or may be, in the receipt of a pension from the United States Government, will not require the assistance of agents or attorneys in preparing or presenting their claims for the State pension.

FARM FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale his well-known HOMESTEAD, situated in Hampden 2½ miles from this city. This is one of the finest locations in the State, both for beauty of prospect and profit in farming. The farm contains from 90 to 100 acres, divided into woodland, pasturage, tillage and grass land; is in good condition, and as it has a variety of soil is well adapted to a mixed system of agriculture; and also having some of the earliest land on the River, it is especially fitted for raising early produce, which being so near market is one of the most profitable branches of farming.

This place is one of the few that have never been sold since the original purchase, but circumstances making it expedient, it is now offered for sale.

Possession given when desired. For further particulars enquire of HAINES & CROSBY, 112 Hammond St., or on the premises.

An Invaluable Spring Medicine.

HUMOR DOCTOR.

This excellent medicinal remedy was first prepared by Dr. P. in 1847, and was then employed with great success in expelling humors from the blood; but in 1848, a medical friend, who was quite celebrated as a physician, especially in the treatment of humors, suggested some important improvements, which were adopted, and which have made it (so the people say) the very best remedy for all kinds of humors known to "the faculty." This preparation is composed wholly of vegetables, among which are Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, Burdock, Noble Pine, Mandrake, Senna and Bloodroot. Suffice it to say, the "Doctor" is used in hundreds of families as a general medicine. Unlike many other popular remedies, it is very grateful to the taste.

HAIR RESTORER

IS THE BEST PREPARATION ever presented to the public for the Hair, and the only article possessing all the merits claimed for it.

IT MAKES HAIR GROW ON BALD HEADS.

Arrests its falling off or turning gray, cures all diseases of the scalp and makes harsh, wiry hair beautifully soft and luxuriantly glossy; but above all is the marvellous rapidity with which

GRAY HAIR IS RESTORED

To its original color. Use it a few times and let your gray hairs have disappeared as if by magic.

IT IS NOT A DYE,

But strikes at the roots of the hair, supplying them with new life and coloring matter. It is a much better dressing than Oil or Pomatum, and avoids their deleterious effects. It is elegantly perfumed, is easily applied, and is in all respects agreeable to the senses. The Habeas Corpus in Kentucky—Orders for the Arrest of Frominent Union Generals—Arrival of Fenians at Port and from Eastport—They Draw Pistols on the Officers of the Boat.

LOUISVILLE, Apr. 26.

This afternoon Judge Ballard, of the U. District Court, issued an order for the arrest of General J. C. Davis for interfering with the course of public justice, in disobeying the writ of habeas corpus in the case of Henderson.

Marshal Merriweather was resisted by General Davis while attempting to enforce the order. An alias attachment was awarded against General Davis, returnable in May.

Attachments were also made against Major Generals George H Thomas and R W. Johnson and General W D. Whipple, A. A. G, and Provost Marshal of Tennessee, returnable at the next returnable term.

Separate copies were ordered to be issued against General and Lieutenant Colonel W. H. Cuyler for resisting the U. S. Marshal in the discharge of his duties, with bail endorsed on each.

Marshal Merriweather has notified the President of the position of affairs.

Mr. Henderson was taken to Nashville last night by order of General Davis, notwithstanding the writ issued by Judge Ballard for his prosecution before the United States Courts.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 26.

In the court martial case of Isham Henderson, Col. W. H. Coyle, Judge Advocate of Kentucky, appeared as Henderson's counsel, by permission of Gen. Thomas.—Col. Coyle objected to a member of the court martial as having an opinion adverse to the accused. Not being ready for the defense the court adjourned until to-morrow.

General James P. Brownlow has sent a party of cavalry to arrest the guerilla Harper, whom he saw at Franklin this morning.

PORTLAND, Me., April 27.

Steamer New Brunswick arrived for Eastport this morning with two hundred Fenians.

On leaving for Boston several who had gone ashore were left behind at the entrance to the harbor.

The Fenians, who were spoiling for a safe fight, mutinied, drew their pistols at the officers, and obliged the boat to put back.—Some of the ringleaders were put ashore and sent on by railroad, and the boat proceeded at 9 o'clock.

NEW YORK, Apr. 26.

At the board old 6 20's sold at 106¼ a 106⅝. The issue of 1865 rose ⅛; 10-40's continued rather weak, and sold ⅛ lower. Certificates and compound notes are current at par, and interest advices report the return of a considerable amount of 6 20's by the Africa.

A MAGNIFICENT WARDROBE. The dresses worn by Miss Lucille Western in her great part of Camille, were purchased in Paris, and cost, including the jewels used in their decoration, seventeen thousand dollars. Miss Western's entire wardrobe is valued at fifty-thousand dollars.—Boston Commercial.

AN EXTRAORDINARY TRIAL. The English papers give quite a long report of the trial before one of the Assize Courts of a child ten years old, named Emily Ballard, on a charge preferred by Rev. C. R. Gray, of stealing a penny from a schoolmate named Sarah Jane Gough. It would seem that a clergyman might be devoting his time and labor a little more profitably than in arraigning a girl of tender years before a court of dignified magistrates on so paltry and petty a charge as this. If he would give a little attention to her education, or look a little into the circumstances under which she had been trained, or try to remedy the poverty which had led her to commit the act, he would have been performing the duties of his sacred office quite as thoroughly and profitably as in the course which he chose to pursue. It is some satisfaction to know that the worshipful magistrates of the British Realm, after due consideration and profound study of the case, decided that in their judgment the child had no felonious intent.—[N. Y. Times.

A REMARKABLE CURE. A young man wanted to marry a girl out in Wisconsin, but his rich parents forbade the match. The young man became sick—very sick—and had terrible fainting fits. The doctors were called, and said he would soon die, and he said he wanted to. The father of the girl visited the patient, and agreed with both him and the doctors. The poor fellow said that if he could marry his Mary Ann he would die happily. His dying request certainly could not be refused, and Mary Ann having no objections, the minister was sent for, and the solemn ordinance of marriage was performed before the most solemn messenger of death should step in to snatch away the gasping bridegroom from time to the regions of eternity. The knot being securely tied, the patient rose from the bed a well man. It was a great cure, astonishing both the cruel "parient" and the doctors, but the bride acted as though she expected it all the time.

WHEELER & LYNDE, PROPRIETOR

WM. H. WHEELER, EDITOR.

☞Business letters should be addressed to the Publishers, "WHEELER & LYNDE."

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1866.

IS THE SOUTH PREPARED? The President, by his Peace Proclamation, assumes, and in fact declares, that the late rebel States have returned to their loyalty—that they are fully and properly prepared to resume their former position in the Union—and that it will not only be safe to admit their representatives to places of power in the government, but that it is our duty to do so. President Johnson declares that this policy of immediate and unconditional admission must and shall be adopted, notwithstanding the opinion of Congress to the contrary—notwithstanding, as we believe, the feeling of the country against it, and the desire of the people for further guaranties of southern loyalty and good conduct. This, moreover, is the desire of many persons and papers, otherwise disposed to approve of the President's course in regard to the late rebels. The Providence Journal, one of the most judicious and influential papers in New England, says that "the proclamation must lead to the speedy withdrawal of the national troops from the Southern States. The President assumes that the people are quietly disposed. He must believe that justice will be executed and that the rights of all classes will be protected, or he would not thus withdraw the strong hand of federal power. Did the people at the north also believe that the power which is now remitted to the white men of the South would not be abused, could they see the proofs that the blacks would be guaranteed their rights, they would universally rejoice, and would ask for no special legislation to protect any classes at the South. But they do not see the evidence to justify the flattering picture the President draws of the condition of the South. We do not ask that the Southerners should at once forget all their old animosity, and should mingle freely in social circles with Union men. But does the legislation of the Southern States show that they yet have the right spirit? Is the character of the men they have elected to office encouraging? Have not Gen. Thomas and other wise officers testified recently that in their opinion the troops cannot yet be withdrawn without endangering the public peace? Are not the rebels in many districts annoying and persecuting Union men? Are they not bringing suits against them for what was done under military orders during the war? And how can the President believe that the blacks are secure from oppression, if they are left to the unrestrained action of their old masters? Does not Gen. Terry testify that even in Virginia, now, while his forces are aiding the Freedmen's Bureau, there are, in his opinion, more cases of cruelty than of kindness towards the negroes? Do not the officers of the Bureau find that their intervention is required in every part of the South, in order to protect the blacks? What chance will the Union men and the negroes have for justice in the civil courts at present? It does seem to us that the proclamation renders it an absolute necessity that some law like the Civil Rights bill should be enacted and executed. The President says that he means that the freedmen shall be protected. How is that end to be accomplished?"

ADMISSION OF COLORADO. The bill to admit the new State of Colorado to the Union, passed the Senate on Wednesday last by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Chandler, Clark, Conners, Cragin, Cresswell, Howard, Howard, Howe, Kirkwood, Lane of Indiana, Nye, Pomeroy, Ramsay, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Trumbull, Van Winkle, Willey and Wilson—19.

Nays—Messrs. Buckalow, Davis, Doolittle, Edmunds, Foster, Grimes, Guthrie, Hendricks, McDougall, Morgan, Poland, Riddle and Summer—13.

Mr. Dixon came from his sick bed to vote against the bill, but paired off with Lane of Kansas, who would have voted for it. Nearly if not quite all of the other absent Senators were paired, and it is understood that one Senator who would have voted for the bill was paired with a Democrat who did, notwithstanding, vote against it.

The Colorado act will be carried in the House; and, although President Johnson asked Congress to pass it in a special message, there are indications that he will veto it!

So says the Boston Journal's correspondent; but we cannot believe there is the slightest probability of a veto in this case.

The number of Union soldiers who have lost their lives in consequence of the war against rebellion, although fearful in the aggregate, is not so large as has been represented. The Provost Marshal General has completed a careful compilation, from the muster-rolls, of all the deaths in battle, from wounds and from disease, in every regiment and company of every loyal State from the beginning to the close of the war. From this it appears that 280,139 officers and men have lost their lives in the service. Of this number 5221 commissioned officers and 90,886 enlisted men have been killed in action, or died of wounds, while 2321 commissioned officers, and 182,329 enlisted men have died of disease, or, in a few cases, from accident.

THE YANKEE FLEET AT VALPARAISO.—The Providence Journal says:

The arrival of our fleet under Commodore Rodgers in the harbor of Valparaiso appears to have been most timely. Commodore Nunez, who is in command of the Spanish fleet, had notified the Chilian authorities that if an attempt was made to blow up his vessels with torpedoes, he would bombard Valparaiso. The city lies in a very exposed situation, and the Spanish vessels could reduce it to ashes. Commodore Rodgers and Rear Admiral Denman of the British fleet protesting against a bombardment under such circumstances, and demanded that at any rate time should be given for the removal of the women and children, and the property of neutrals. They gave a peculiar significance to their language by taking position between the Spanish fleet and the city. Nunez has one immense iron-clad, the Numancia, carrying forty guns, and wearing iron armor four inches thick. But the American fleet comprises the Powhattan, Vanderbilt, Tuscarora, Wateree, Suwannee, and the double-turretted monitor Monadnock. With the latter alone, Rodgers thinks he could dispose of the Numancia in half an hour. We may reasonably conclude that Valparaiso is safe from bombardment, as long as Rogers and Denman are in the harbor. The Chilians have good reason for the gratitude which they are said to evince towards our naval officers.

A Washington letter to the Boston Traveller says:

There is no doubt but that both Houses will pass a bill prohibiting the importation of nitro-glycerine into the country. The committees on commerce in both Houses will be ready to report a bill in a day or two.

The Sailors' and Soldiers' League had a meeting last night, at which the statement was made that the President is not keeping his order in reference to the appointment of soldiers to office.

It is charged that a man who in 1861 declared that Mr. Lincoln should not be inaugurated except it was by wading through his blood, had been appointed to a place in the Treasury Department since the President's order was issued.

The man's name is Lammond, and he is so disloyal that Secretary Harlan removed him from a place in the Interior Department.

Mr. McCulloch in defiance of the President's order, so it is charged, put the copperhead into a place in the Treasury, instead of a soldier.

THE BRITISH SQUADRON ON THE FISHING GROUNDS. A very incorrect list of the squadron at present comprising the naval force on this station under command of Vice Admiral Sir James Hope, K. C. B., is going the rounds of the provincial papers. We present our readers with the following authentic list, corrected up to March 3, 1866:—

ATLANTIC MONTHLY. The May number of this magazine is of varied interest. "The Harmonists," by the author of "Life in the Iron Mills," is a sketch of the village of Economy, founded by the followers of Rapp, on the Ohio, early in this century. "The Last Days of Walter Savage Landor," "Dr. Johns," "Passages from Hawthorne's Note Books," "The Chimney Corner for 1866," will all be found to be interesting and instructive. The usual Reviews and Literary Notices follow.

The most exquisite piece of "sarkasum" that we have seen for many a day, appears in the last number of the rebel organ in this city:

Happily, in the Democracy ranks there is no jealousy, no strife, and no contest. In their choice of a candidate for Governor they will not be controlled by cliques and rings. They will seek out the best man for the position without reference to his past associations. They care not whether he lives in the East or West, or in the Centre; their only question will be: Is he capable, is he honest, and is he right on the great question of Reconstruction!

A widow lady of Danville, Ky., took an orphan boy to raise, quite small, and when he arrived at the age of 18 she married him, she then being in her 50th year. They lived many years together, happy as any couple. Ten years ago they took an orphan girl to raise. This fall the old lady died, being 96 years of age, and in seven weeks after, the old man married the girl they had raised, he being 68 years old, and she 18.

THE PERILS OF SAVAGE LIFE. Minnesota papers say that news has been received from a camp of friendly Indians near the Missouri Coteau, to the effect that the main portion of an entire band, while out in search of buffalo, were caught in a terrible snow storm, and but one returned to bring tidings of the sad fate of his comrades. All had perished in one night—the party numbering some forty or fifty.

THE BURDELL MURDER. The Newburyport Herald says that a young man about thirty years old, calling himself Chas. H. Golden, who is in jail in that city awaiting trial for various alleged crimes, confesses that he was connected with the celebrated murder of Dr. Burdell, in New York, ten years since. He says the murder was planned by Mrs. Cunningham. The circumstances of the murder as related by him are so far correct that the officers believe that he was not only a party to the tragedy, but (what he does not confess) the murderer himself. Golden says he was the lover of Augusta Cunningham.

BRITISH IMPUDENCE. When Gen. Meade was at Calais a few days ago, Lieut.-Governor Gordon of New Brunswick arrived at St. Stephens, just across the river, and sent word to Gen. Meade requesting his immediate attendance upon His Excellency. The General sent word in reply that he should be on board his steamer, the Regulator, from half past 2 to 3. The Lieutenant Governor did not come, but sent Cen. Doyle.

THE FREEDMEN IN VIRGINIA. The Danville (Va.) Times has intelligence from Halifax, Pittsylvania and Charlotte counties to the effect that all large farmers and planters agree in the statement that the freedmen are behaving admirably, and are performing as much work as they could be reasonably required to do. They hope to make as large or larger crops than ever before, and at no greater cost.

"Scratch Gravel" not the murderer of the Joyce children. Hon. B. W. Harris, Attorney for Norfolk county, after a full examination of the case, declares that "Scratch Gravel" was not concerned in the murder, and that when they were committed he was in another State, about one thousand miles from West Roxbury.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.
☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also Liverspot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than a brunnette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them without injuring the text-ure or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. Perry, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

TELEGRAPHIC TO THE Whig & Courier.

BOSTON, April 27.

In the House of Representatives this afternoon the bill to equalize the bounties of our soldiers was ordered to a third reading by a yea and nay vote, 125 to 91. All the amendments which were proposed to the bill except one were rejected. The bill provides for the payment of nine dollars per month for every months service in the army to those men who received no bounty until the sum of $325 is reached, this being the maximum sum paid by the State, and whatever bounty any man has received is to be deducted from the monthly compensation provided for the bill. A committee of the Executive Council are to examine the claims, and if the amount required to pay them exceeds $5,000,000 the matter is to be referred to the next Legislature.

Thirty-Ninth Congress.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, April 27.

Senate.

The bill for the relief of certain naval contractors was taken up and passed.

Mr. Wilson offered a joint resolution for the following amendment to the Constitution:

No payment shall ever be made by the United States or any State, for or on account of the emancipation of any slave or slaves, or for on account of any debt connected with or in aid of insurrection against the United States.

Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State; but whenever in any state the elective franchise shall be denied to any of its inhabitants, being male citizens of the United States of 21 years of age, for any cause except insurrection or rebellion against the United States, the basis of representation in such State shall be reduced in the proportion to which the number of male citizens so excluded shall bear to the whole number of male citizens over 21 years of age.

The second clause of the resolution provides that whenever any of the States lately in rebellion shall ratify the foregoing article senators and representatives from such State or States shall be admitted into Congress.

The resolution was ordered to be printed.

Adjourned to Monday.

House.

Mr Morrill gave notice that the bill amending the internal revenue act would not be called up until Monday week.

The Northern Pacific Railroad bill was taken up.

The substitute offered by Mr Stevens was considered.

Several gentlemen participated in the debate.

Mr Spaulding moved that the bill be laid on the table.

Carried amid intense excitement.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

A committee of conference was ordered on the West India telegraph bill.

The House then adjourned, with the understanding that the business to-morrow would be general debate only.

A REMARKABLE CASE—A Child Claimed by Two Mothers. A remarkable case, in which a Boston lady is interested, is now on trial before the Superior Court at Hartford, Conn. The particulars are given by the Hartford Post as follows:

"A lady, Mrs. Deshon, now Mrs. Jane Rand, residing in Boston, had a boy by her first husband. The boy had several singular marks on his person, and also a serious impediment in his speech. When the child was five and a half years old, it died suddenly while its mother was asleep. The singular appearance of the boy led her to have an autopsy made, and she afterwards prosecuted the attending physician and apothecary who had furnished the medicine. Rufus Choat was her counsel at this time. Some two or three years after, Mrs. Rand observed a child in Boston which resembled hers so closely that she followed it for some time, but finally lost sight of it and his attendants. Two years or more elapsed before she heard of it again, and then found out that it was in the Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb in this city, being a charity pupil from the State of Massachusetts. A picture of her husband, whom she claims was the father of this child, was shown to him, when he instantly exclaimed, as well as he could, and in the presence of several witnesses, 'That's my father; he lives in Boston.'

A careful examination has been made of the boy by a physician who attended him during a three months' sickness, and he says that "God might have made two persons so near alike, but this was the first instance of the kind that had come to his knowledge." The marks upon the boy now here correspond exactly to those upon the one he attended, and who was afflicted with a serious rupture, which the boy at the Asylum has also. Mrs. Rand's testimony occupied the Court during the entire Tuesday, and her counsel, Mr. Eaton, has considerable more testimony to be introduced, which he thinks cannot fail to convince any reasonable person that the child of Mrs. Rand was taken away whilst its mother slept and another one substituted.

On the other hand, the putative mother, Mrs. Phillips, Staples, Wilder and Frost, she having been married several times, claims to be able to substantiate her claim to the boy, who she says is hers by Mr. Frost. He was admitted to the Asylum some four years ago under the name of Edward Frost, and is now thirteen years of age, and, as we have said before, as a charity pupil from the State of Massachusetts, but during this time his mother, or she who claims to be such, has paid little or no attention to him.

The case is on of the strangest on record, and will probably last for several days, and a great deal of interest is manifested in the result.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Reported for the Whig.

Supreme Judicial Court—April Term.

Hon. JONAS CUTTING, J. presiding.

Friday, April 27.

John Brackett vs James Goddard. To recover for money paid for the purchase of some down hemlock logs or trees which had been cut and peeled the summer before the sale, on land then belonging to Deft, but which he had afterwards sold to one Works without any reservation in the deed. The Deft claimed that he in fact reserved the logs when he sold to Works, and that such should be the legal construction of the deed. The case was made law and continued on report of the evidence to the full Court. Paine, Brown.

The juries were dismissed.

Anniversary Ceremonies of the Brewer Monumental Association.

The anniversary of the first enlistments in Brewer under the first call of President Lincoln to put down the rebellion, was yesterday observed in that town under the auspices of the Brewer Monumental Association. A national salute was fired in the morning, and at 9 o'clock a procession of returned soldiers and sailors, escorted by the citizens and preceded by the Bangor Band, all under the marshalship of Lieut. Col. J. Hutchings, was formed in the square near the postoffice and marched to the Congregational Church, which was filled to its utmost capacity. The services in the church were opened by chant—'Victoria'—by the choir. Prayer by Rev. Dr. Harris. Music by the band.

An oration was then delivered by Rev. Dr. Tefft, who retained the attention of the audience for nearly two hours, being frequently interrupted by outbursts of applause.

Several original poems were then read by David Barker, Esq., of Exeter, after which short speeches were made by Judge Kent, Gen. Hamlin and Gen. Plaisted.

A Levee, under the direction of the ladies, was held in the Town Hall in the afternoon and evening, which was well attended.

COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED. Some two weeks since, a gentleman in this city received a letter from a firm in Norwich, Conn., enclosing samples of counterfeit fractional currency and offering to furnish the same at the rate of from $18 to $20 per $100.—The letter was placed in the hands of Mr. G. K. Jewett, President of the Second National Bank, who promptly communicated with parties in Norwich, through whom was secured the arrest of the persons sending the letter. There were two of them, and large quantities of spurious money, including some well executed counterfeits on the Fall River Bank of Mass., was found in their possession. Norwich papers say that they deny any dishonest intention, and claim to be in the employ of the Government, acting to ferret out the makers of the worthless counterfeits with which the country is flooded.

—In Police Court yesterday Shepard Hart, was fined $5 and cost for being drunk and making a disturbance.

—The Rev. Mr. Walker of Portland will preach at the Third Parish (French street) Congregational Church to-morrow.

—SPIRITUALISM. Miss Eliza H. Fuller (Trance Medium) will speak at Pioneer Chapel to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon and evening. Admission 5 cents.

—Our Kennebec friends have plenty of steamboating to Boston this season. The Star of the East and Eastern Queen compose one line, making four trips a week; and the Daniel Webster with another first class steamer yet to come, will compose another line to make daily trips, or six each week. This makes in all ten steamboat trips per week each way. There will probably be a wholesome reduction of rates.

—DAILY LINE TO PORTLAND. The Belfast Age says that books have been opened at H. G. O. Washburn's, in that city, for subscription to the stock of the Penobscot Steam Navigation Company, incorporated under an act passed by the last Legislature. The enterprise is to establish a daily line of steamers from the Penobscot river to Portland, to connect with an extra or other trains of cars to Boston and the West. As soon as the stock is taken up an additional boat will be put upon the route. The Lady Lang which has taken the place of the Regulator, will remain, and the latter boat, which is temporarily chartered by the Government, for service connected with the Fenian movement at Calais, is to be returned to the route. We understand that the stock is being taken up quite rapidly.

—A lady passenger on the Springfield and New Haven train recently had her pocket picked of $2000.

THE FENIANS DOWN EAST. The Portland Star's correspondent says that all is quiet at Eastport. About 3 o'clock Friday morning a store and bonded warehouse at Indian Island were burnt. Buildings and contents entirely destroyed. Loss about $10,000. One account says it was accidentally fired, as persons were in the building at midnight with lights.

There are four British men of war in the vicinity of Eastport, under command of Admiral Sir John Hope.

On Friday night a murder was committed in Eastport. Some men had been wrestling, and the affair was about ending in a knock-down, when James Andrews interferred and was struck by Andrew Bell, once under the jaw, and again in the pit of the stomach, which blows laid him out, dead. Bell has been sent to Machias jail. Both men were sailors and belonged in Eastport. Andrews is said to have been a former resident of Portland.

ANNIVERSARY AT BUCKSPORT. The Annual Exhibition at the East Maine Conference Seminary occurs on Wednesday next, May 2d, at 2 p. m., consisting of Prize Declamations, Music, &c. In the evening a Grand Concert by Shaw's Quartette Club of Portland, who will sing a variety of sterling music, consisting of Quartettes, Trios, Duets &c. A Lecture will be delivered on Tuesday evening at the Methodist Church, by Rev. Dr. TEFFT: Subject, Wesley. And on Thursday evening an address by General J. L. CHAMBERLAIN.

—Mr. S. Dill, of Philadelphia, informs the Maine Farmer that in 1850 he transferred a few trout from Long Pond near Rangeley, to a small brook that empties into one of the Sandy River ponds. For seven or eight years nothing was seen or heard from them; but since that time it is judged by men that live near these ponds, that not less than 200 pounds are taken yearly of the best trout in that vicinity. There has never before been seen a fish of any kind in those waters.

—The Rockland Democrat learns that during the thunder tempest on Saturday evening last, a horse of Mr. Copeland in Warren was struck by lightning and killed, and that a man who was in the act of feeding the animal was knocked back senseless but has since recovered.

—The Bath Times says that a new enterprise is projected at Yarmouth, in the shape of a mill for the manufacture of wool hats, to be owned by a stock company, with a capital of $30,000, and will produce about fifty hats per day.

Once more we must urge all our readers to do their part in destroying the rings filled with the eggs of caterpillars, which have been deposited upon the twigs of fruit trees. Within a small territory in this city more than a million eggs have been destroyed within a few days. Unless the caterpillars are destroyed they will destroy the fruit entirely.—[Ken. Jour.

ACCIDENT AND DEATH BY LIGHTNING.—The dwelling house of George B. Kingsley, of Gouldsboro, was struck by lightning during the shower on Tuesday morning and badly shattered. Mrs. James B. Wright and child about two years old, being in the house, were struck, and the child killed instantly. Mrs. W., it was thought, might recover.—[Ellsworth American.

—The Gardiner Journal says a new passenger depot is to be built in that city, "near the head of the bridge." Such an improvement is needed in that place.

—The Belfast Age says that a young man named George Drinkwater, of Northport, narrowly escaped being killed a few days since. He was scouring the barrel of a loaded pistol, which he held in his hand with the muzzle pointing towards him, when it exploded, the ball entering near the pit of the stomach, passing round and lodging under the arm. But for the oblique position in which the weapon happened to be held, he would have been instantly killed.

—A fine sextant has lately been presented by the British Government to Capt. Judson R. Washburn, Master of Brig "R. B. Gove" of Camden, in recognition of his humanity and kindness to the crew of the Ship "Seven" of London, in Dec. last.

LIFE INSURANCE. In the Rockland Democrat's report of cases tried at the recent term of the Supreme Court in that city, was one involving the liabilities of a Life Insurance Company, on a policy of $3000 in favor of Joseph Easterbrook, Jr., late of Camden, deceased. The insured was in health when the policy was made, but became debilitated and eventually deranged, believing a demon pursued him to make him take his own life. He finally committed suicide by shooting himself. The Insurance Company refused to pay the sum insured. Verdict for $3 257. Exceptions filed, and motion for a new trial. Gould, Simonton and Rice for plff.; Thacher and Judd of Boston, for defense.

—The house, barn and outbuildings of Mr. Edward Brown, the house of Mr. Gardiner Brown and the shop of Warren Moody of Liberty, on the road between Liberty village and Light's Corner, were all consumed by fire on Wednesday of last week.—[Belfast Age.

We regret to learn that Mr. Benj. Chamberlain and wife, former Superintendent and matron at our Alms, were thrown from a carriage on Tuesday of last week in Clinton, where they were visiting, and were quite severely injured. The horse took fright while descending a hill, and kicked the carriage to pieces. Mr. Chamberlain had one of his wrists broken and his wife received several severe bruises but no broken bones. We understand they are doing well.—[Gardiner Journal.

—A Western editor is delighted at having nearly been called "honey" by the gal he loves, because she saluted him at their last meeting as "Old Beeswax!"

—The gentleman so often spoken of in novels, who riveted people with his gaze, has now obtained employment at a boiler manufactory.

—Quilp, of The Boston Post, suggests that the celebration of the passage of the civil rights bill should be called the Yankee feast of the pass-over.

—Man may err and err and be forgiven, but poor woman, with all his temptation, and but half his strength, is placed beyond the pale of earthly salvation, if she but be tempted into crime.

—Some of the London merchants have instituted a custom of charging an admission fee to their store. The lady sightseers can enter by paying a small fee, and examine all the latest styles and costumes without making any purchases unless disposed to do so.

—Mr. Ohle died in Syracuse, N. Y., 18th, at the age of one hundred and six years and eight days. He was a gunsmith and worked at his craft when ninety-eight years of age. At the age of one hundred years his hair was white, but it subsequently assumed a dark brown color.

—It is related of Lord Cockburn, that he was once sitting on the hillside with his shepherd, when, observing the sheep reposing in the coldest situation, he remarked, "John, if I were a sheep, I would lie on the other side of the hill." The shepherd answered, "Ah, my lord, but if yo had been a sheep ye would hae had mair sense."

Attorney Gen. Speed has left his department in charge of Assistant Attorney Seward Ashton, and gone to Louisville, Ky., to see what chance there would be of trying Jeff Davis there or at Nashville. It is understood that Chief Justice Chase declines to hold a court at Richmond or at Norfolk, while the writ of habeas corpus is suspended in Virginia, and while the military authorities reign supreme there. Besides, District Attorney Chandler declares that while a Virginia Grand Jury would adopt any bill of indictment framed by prosecuting officer, in accordance with other usages, he is confident that no Virginia jury would convict Davis of treason. There may be a better chance in Kentucky or Tennessee, and Attorney General Speed is understood to have retained the professional aid of Judge Clifford of Massachusetts, W. M. Evarts of New York and Gen. Rosseau of Kentucky.

The Senate closed its doors at three o'clk, and was for over two hours in executive session. It is understood that for reasons known to Senator Morgan the nomination of Mr. Smith, which was referred to him, was not brought forward. Senator Cowan attempted to get some of the new Pennsylvania appointments confirmed, but was plainly told that officers appointed solely because they supported the President's policy could not be confirmed by the Senate.

Quite a number of postmasters, revenue officers, Indian agents, brevet appointments and appointments in the regular army were confirmed, while some were laid on the table for further examination.

Among the military appointments confirmed were Geo. A. Otis of Massachusetts, F. French of New Hampshire, and Wm. F Smith of Rhode Island, to be Assistant Surgeons in the regular army; and Wm. A. Rucker, a brother of Gen. Rucker, to be a Paymaster in the regular army; Brig. Gens James D. Fessenden and Cyrus Hamlin, to be Major Generals of Volunteers; Lieut. Colonel Samuel C. Oliver, of the 14th Massachusetts, to be Colonel by brevet for gallant and meritorious services during the war; Lieut. Col. M. W. Butt, of the 22d Massachusetts, to be Colonel by brevet, for gallantry at the battle of Spottsylvania, while in command of his regiment, and for conspicuous bravery and faithfulness in the campaign of 1863; Captain Herbert C. Mason, 20th Mass., to be Major by brevet for gallant and meritorious services during the war; Capt. Wm. W. Buckley, 1st R. I. artillery, to be Major by brevet for faithful and meritorious services; James P. Grace, late Captain in the 54th Mass., to be 2d Lt. in the 5th Regiment of Artillery regular army; Additional Paymaster Simon P. Marston of New Hampshire, to be Lieutenant Colonel by brevet for faithful services.

James M Scovel of Camden, N. J., who figured recently in the attempt to elect a Republican Senator in New Jersey in place of Stockton, has been here and obtained the removal of the Revenue Assessor and Postmaster, at his residence, to make room for supporters of the President's policy. Some third rate Massachusetts politicians have been also here looking after small places, and pledging an unlimited amount of support in return.

There is every indication that the President is bent on making removals of office-holders, to make place for his supporters; but the members of Congress do not appear intimidated by the coming onslaught on their friends and supporters. All admit, however, that it would be desirable for the President and Congress to bury the hatchet, and to agree on some plan of reconstruction. Several State delegations have had meetings to devise, if possible, some plan acceptable alike to the President and to Congress; and leading politicians are devoting themselves to the work of mediation. I cannot see any prospect of success, if the President is expected to retreat from his position, as he openly declares to visitors that he knows that he is right and that he will not budge an inch.—[Special to Boston Journal.

Anecdotes of the Raven.

It was a common practice in the spacious yard in Belfast to lay trains of corn to attract the sparrows within view of a window, opened just far enough to afford room for the muzzle of a gun, neither the weapon nor its wielder being visible from without. A tame raven used to scamper away at the sight of a man taking the gun towards the house, and hide himself within view of the scene of slaughter. As soon as the shot was fired he would dash from his shelter, seize a defunct sparrow, scurry back to his nook with his prize, and repeat this performance as long as the battle lasted.

England, Scotland and Ireland are all favored with his presence, but he specially affects the Orkneys and the Hebrides. The people of Pabbay were once at their wit's end how to get rid of the ravens, who mustered in unusual force to feed on the carcasses of some grampuses. The Islanders were afraid that the grampuses disposed of, the birds would pay their attention to the fields of barley; but drive them away they could not. At last, one Morrison hit upon a plan. Stealing with some companions to the sleeping place of the ravens at night, he contrived to get some of them alive. These were quickly denuded of all their feathers, except those on their wings and tail, and turned among their friends in the morning just as they were going to breakfast. The sensation created was immense, and the hubbub fearful, but it ended with the unwelcome guests departing with more haste than ceremony.

The raven possesses the power of imitating the human voice, and, if not so voluble as the parrot, enunciates his sentences with ten-fold the gravity of Poll. A raven's corpse was once followed by a greater crowd than ever escorted the funeral of any one of Rome's distinguished sons. This honored bird was born on the top of the Temple of Castor, but took up his abode in a shoemaker's shop opposite. Crispin took great pains to educate his black lodger, and his pains were well bestowed. Every morning the raven used to fly to the Rostra, saluting in turn Tiberius and his nephews, and after thus testifying his loyalty, amused himself with exchanging greetings with the populace. For several years the bird continued to delight the idlers of Rome, until a jealous brother in his landlord's craft killed him in a fit of anger. The mob rose as one man, drove the murderer out of the city and then executed him. The body of the popular bird was then placed on a litter, and borne to the pile amid the lamentations of Rome, and his ashes deposited in a field on the right hand side of the Appian Way.—[Chambers's Journal.

THE MUTE DETECTIVE.—'No dogs admitted, sir,' said the porter to a gay assemblage, as a young man and his dog appeared at the entrance; 'you must leave him behind if you go in.' 'Very well,' said the young man; 'stay about here, Prince, till I come back,' and he joined the crowd within. By and by the young man wished to refer to his watch, when behold! the chain had been snapped in two and the valuable time-piece was gone. He considered the case a moment, and then a sudden thought flashed through his mind. So, stepping out, he whispered the fact to the porter, and gained permission to take the dog in for a minute or two. 'Look here, Prince,' he said, 'you knowing dog, my watch is stolen,' and he showed him the empty pocket and the cut chain. 'Do you understand, old fellow? In there, sir, is the thief. You find it, my good doggie, and I'll get you a famous treat. You understand, do you?' Prince wagged his head and tail, and gave his master a wonderful knowing look, and then the two stole quietly into the place.

Quietly this dumb detective glided around among the people, smelling away at this one's coat and at that one's chain, until at last he set his teeth firmly into the coat skirt of a genteel looking man, and could not be shaken off. The young man quietly made known the case the bystanders, who gathered around him, and had the thief's pockets duly searched. Six other watches were found upon him, which he had gathered up in the course of the morning, and which their rightful owners were very glad to get their hands on again. Prince selected out his master's property in a twinkling, as that was all he cared for, and gave it to him most joyfully. It would have taken a very keen policeman to have done the work so neatly, and all agreed that he merited as good a dinner as a dog could have.—[Galveston Civilian.

OLD BUT GOOD.—Pat had been sent by his master to purchase half a bushel of oysters to the quay, but was absent so long that apprehensions were entertained for his safety. He returned at last, however, puffing under his load in most musical style. 'Where the devil have you been?' exclaimed his master. 'Where have I been? Why, where should I be but to fetch the oysters?' 'And what in the name of St. Patrick kept you so long?' 'Long! by my sowl, I think I've been pretty quick considering all things.' 'Considering what things?' 'Considering what things? Why, considering the gutting the fish, to be sure.' 'Gutting what fish?' 'What fish? Why, blur-an-ouns, the oysters, to be sure.' 'What do you mean?' 'What do I mane? Why I mane that as I was a resting myself down forneast the Pickled Herring, and having a drop to comfort me, a jontleman axed me what I'd got in the sack? 'Oysters,' says I. 'Let's look at them,' says he; and he opens the bag.—'Och! thunder and pratees,' says he, 'who sold you these?' 'It was Mick Carney,' says I, 'aboard the Pow! Doodie smack.' 'Mick Carney, the thief o' the world,' says he, 'what a blackguard he must be to give them to you without gutting.' And aren't they gutted?' 'Divil a one o' them,' says he. 'Musha, then,' says I, 'what will I do?' 'Do?' says he, 'I'd sooner do it for you myself than have you abused.' And so he takes 'em in doors, and guts 'em nate and clane as you'll see."

Patent Metallic Sole.

A NEW INVENTION.

WETTING THE FEET is the most prolific cause of disease and death known to humanity. It is almost sure to bring on a cold; and colds, neglected, and often when not neglected, lead to fevers or to coughs and fatal consumptions. It is in recognition of this truth that the inventive talent of the country has for years been devising some method, or attempting to devise it, for keeping the feet dry, and yet that should not give inconvenience to the wearer. Rubber shoes, in one form or another, have hitherto been our reliance; but it is well known, as among their many evils, that while they keep the feet dry from external moisture, they sweat them overmuch, and by thus inducing an undue tenderness increase a susceptibility to colds rather than otherwise.—They are also cumbersome to the feet, and withal are very expensive. The demand is for something that shall make the ordinary Boot and Shoe impervious to water, without effecting their elegance or durability, and, if possible, without adding sensibly to the cost of manufacture. These, it will be conceded, are most important features, and we conscientiously affirm that they are absolutely attained in the invention herewith presented to the public.

The invention consists in inserting between the inner and outer sole, when the boot is making, a thin METALLIC PLATE, exceedingly ductile, combining flexibility with toughness, very light, and every way adapted to the end desired, while the additional expense is merely nominal. It furnishes a perfect barrier against the admission of wet or dampness, though the feet may be exposed over so long upon wet pavements or damp ground.

To ladies and children the METALLIC SOLES will be of incalculable value, as from their habits of life and delicacy of dress, they are particularly exposed to the long train of ills that attend upon an inadequate protection to the feet.

These Soles have already been tried, by the best of all tests, ACTUAL USE, and the testimonials to their merits, freely proffered, indicate that they must be speedily and universally adopted by the public. The Patent Metallic Soled Boots and Shoes are being introduced into the leading Boot and Shoe Stores throughout the United States, and will supplant all forms of overshoes, except possibly for deep mud and snow, as they become known. Be sure to get them and no other. If your shoemaker does not happen to have them, he can procure them without difficulty. If he will not, then send yourself to the inventor one dollar and thirty cents, and obtain six pair, assorted sizes, with right to use, which will be promptly forwarded by mail or express, pre-paid, and which can be made only by any shoemaker in the country. Agencies will be established in every city and village, and supplied with Soles and proprietary stamps, at schedule prices, and liberal commission allowed on sales. Also General Agencies for States appointed on application, with proper testimonials to the inventor.

Samuel J. Seely,

General Depot, corner City Hall Place and Read street, New York.

TESTIMONIALS.

The undersigned have for the past six months worn Boots and Shoes possessing Mr. Seely's METALLIC SOLE, and find them to be an effectual preventive against dampness, and the colds so often taken from damp feet, most gladly do we testify to the perfect efficiency of their service. The Metallic Sole is not only a grand contribution to the cause of general health, but a positive luxury, obviating all necessity of India Rubber shoes, except in muddy weather. All ordinary dampness, and even water upon pavements, is completely foiled of its power of harm by this most simple and useful invention. No one who has once used them will ever be without them again, as they increase the cost of boots and shoes by a sum which is scarcely worth naming, and insure, positively, dry feet, which is reckoned among the first conditions of health and comfort. We heartily commend the "Metallic Sole" to all the sensible.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1865.

SAMUEL J. SEELY, Esq.:

Dear Sir—In reply to your inquiries regarding your Patent Metallic Sole, I take great pleasure in stating that I had the put in a pair of fine calskin boots, which I wo the whole of last winter in the wet streets of Albany. I have had them half soled since, and am wearing your Metallic Sole now, with full intention never to be without them. I have not had a wet damp foot during the whole time I have worn them. I pronounce them the best insole yet made. I am satisfied that no person having once worn them will do without them.—Wishing you the success you deserve for so valuable an invention for the preservation of health,

I remain truly yours,
SAMUEL JEFFERSON.
Contractor, New York.

MR. SAMUEL J. SEELY:

Dear Sir—I take great pleasure in offering my testimony to the usefulness and comfort of your patent Metallic Sole. I have used a pair of boots for the past seven months, furnished with this Sole, and feel no hesitation in saying that I have never worn shoes that combined so perfectly the desirable qualities of dryness and durability.

EMMA OVERTON, Brooklyn, New York.

S. J. SEELY, Esq.:

Dear Sir—In answer to your request, I am pleased to state that I have manufactured shoes containing your Metallic Sole by machinery. I think them a superior article for keeping the feet dry. In manufacturing them there is no trouble from cutting the thread when sewing, nor any difficulty in putting them in the shoe. Respectfully yours.

MUTTY'S

Friction Feed Roller,

FOR CIRCULAR SAWS.

PATENTED JANUARY 23d, 1866.

THIS INVENTION is applicable to all Circular Saws provided with stationary tables and used for re-sawing lumber.

It reduces the labor of sawing one half, and fifty per cent. more lumber can be sawed with, than without its use. It is applicable to any existing machinery; is not liable to get out of repair, and not expensive to apply.

It has been in practical use on the Penobscot river for one year, where the above facts have been fully and satisfactorily demonstrated, as is shown by the certificates of master mill-men, machinists, owners and operators of mills appended hereto.

The undersigned have for the past season witnessed the practical use of MUTTY'S FEED ROLLER in re-sawing lumber, and we cheerfully recommend it as a practical, economical, and labor-saving invention, destined to come into general use in all cases where lumber is re-sawed upon stationary tables. We are fully satisfied from our own observation that the saving effected, and extra amount cut, by its use, is fully as large as the estimate above given.

Referring to the annual statement of the Company and the dividend of $2,975,000 declared February 1, 1866, we present herewith some illustrations of the system by which it was allotted to policy holders.

The Company recognizes the principle that AMPLE SECURITY is a paramount consideration in Life Insurance, and neither in form or amount will any dividend be declared incompatible with that principle.

In addition to the proper reserve for re-insurance of outstanding risks, there still remains an undivided surplus of $1,200,000

DIVIDENDS will be declared annually hereafter, and may be used either to purchase more insurance, in reduction of premiums, or on "paid up" policies, they may be drawn in CASH on the date of each policy in any year.

EXAMPLES,

Showing the Annually Increasing Dividends in this Company on Life Policies of $10,000 each, other amounts in same proportion.

*The annual dividends on these policies exceed the annual premiums. So that a policy holder, by applying his dividends to the payment of future premiums, not only avoids all further outlay, but his policy annually increases in amount.

The dividends on policies of a more recent date, including those issued last year, may be applied in like manner to the full extent of their accumulations.

Insurers who do not thus apply their dividends, have the full benefit of the large additions to their policies, as shown in the above table, and may, at any future period use such portions of their dividends in the payment of any one or more premiums, as they may desire.

☞ It will be noticed as a peculiarity of our system, that while the dividends are moderate at the beginning, as all dividends must be which are declared upon just and equitable principles, yet they rapidly increase each year as the policy grows older, so that eventually the insurance becomes paid up in full.

Endowment Policies,

Payable either at death, or to the persons insured, on their arriving at specified ages.

This favorite form of insurance or investment is of a more recent date, and the following examples will suffice to show their results thus far in the MUTUAL LIFE:

No. of Policy.	When issued.	Age at Issue.	Amnt	Term.	Premium	Prem. how paid.	Total Premium.	Dividend	Amo'nt paid.
19,949	Mar. 11, 1858	42	$5000	Pay at 50	$622 87	A.	$4,982 26	$1,602 50	$6602 50

18,905	July 1, "	47	2000	" 55	129 09	S. A.	2,065 44	662 80	2662 80

All of the above policies have been paid to the owners, and it will be seen that they receive SURPLUS above all they have paid to the Company, with compound interest at six per cent., and no charge whatever for expenses or cost of insurance meanwhile.

Oriental Hair Restorer.

After a long series of experiments, this article, as it is now offered to the public, is believed to be the most perfect of its kind which science has ever devised. No pains have been spared to produce what has so long been demanded by thousands, who, turely grey; and others, who, in the sere and yellow leaf of life, would retain, as far as possible, the semblance of youth. Dr. Knights' ORIENTAL HAIR RESTORER, after a few applications, restores grey or faded hair to its original color, and is the only preparation of the kind upon which the public can place single instance, and is totally unlike the thousand and one so-called Hair Restorers, by which so many have been egregiously deceived.

It is delightfully perfumed, gives the hair a rich and glossy appearance, promotes its luxuriant growth, and will not soil the skin, scalp, or any article of apparel.
